

Unlocking the Barriers to Children's Literacy in Developing Countries

An Online Workshop by HOLD Uganda Executive Director, Charles Mudhumba

What will you learn?

- What are considered the 'locks' to Children's Education attainment in developing countries
- Repercussions of the "locks" on community development and growth
- Interventions/ Solutions to unlock the barriers
- Interconnectedness of Children's Education with Women's Empowerment, Micro-Enterprise, and Leadership Training
- Real life case-study in the Kamuli district of Eastern Uganda

Workshop Presenter:

Charles Mudhumba brings his eight years of professional experience in Social and Community Development in Uganda to the LEAP4change team. He currently works with Holistic Initiative to Community Development, HOLD Uganda, where he is the Executive Director of the organization. Charles founded the HOLD Uganda-Designs by ZOE enterprise in Uganda, which is responding directly to the vocational and business needs of the rural youths and women. Charles is currently pursuing a master's degree in management studies -Monitoring and Evaluation- work based at Uganda Management Institute (UMI). He holds a Postgraduate diploma in monitoring and evaluation from UMI, Fellowship diploma in Virtual Leadership development from USAID/Measure Evaluation and bachelor's degree in Information Science from Makerere University. Charles' passion is to strengthen the capacity of youth and women to become confident, self reliant, and to effectively contribute to their own community development.

WHEN: Thursday, March 23rd, 2017 at 9AM EST

COST: There is a $20 fee for this training

REGISTER: To register for this online workshop, email leap@leap4change.org